

Chetzemoka (čičmähán) Interpretive Trail

Grand Opening

Saturday, June 29, 1:00

Memorial Field, 550 Washington Street

Totem Dedication to follow at 2:30

Corner of Water and Monroe Streets

The čičmähán Trail is a joint endeavor of Native Connections Action Group, Quimper Unitarian Universalist Fellowship and the Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe. Important historic and cultural sites selected by the Jamestown S'Kallam Tribe, are connected by a trail to increase the visibility of S'Klallam history in qátay (Port Townsend) their traditional territory.

Schedule of Events, all FREE to the public

Celebrate the day and honor the 131st anniversary of čičmähán's passing.

Activities will take place throughout the day.

8-11 am Olympic Peninsula Explorers Volkssport Club will offer a 3, 6 or 12-mile walk or bike starting at Memorial Field www.opevolkssport.org

10 am-1pm ReCyclery. Family Fun Ride starting at 1925 Blaine Street. Choose your own easy route and start time. Bring your own bike or borrow one from the ReCyclery. Coffee, juice, bagels, cheese, fruit provided. www.ptrecyclery.org

1 pm Grand Opening of trail & dedication, at Memorial Field. Traditional Native dedication ceremony with drumming, singing, dancing by members of the Jamestown S'Klallam, Port Gamble S'Klallam, and Lower Elwha Klallam Tribes. www.jamestowntribe.org

2:30 pm: Northwest Maritime Center. Dedication of 26 foot totem pole donated by the Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe and created by the House of Myths carvers. www.nwmaritime.org

11 am-5 pm: Jefferson Museum of Art and History. Exhibit of rarely displayed Native artifacts and objects. www.jchsmuseum.org

11:30 am-5:30 pm: Northwind Arts Center – Chetzemoka (čičmähán): Then and Now – Combination of traditional arts and modern Native creations. www.northwindarts.org